

The screenshot displays the Scorio website interface. At the top left is the logo "scorio" with the tagline "WRITE MUSIC TOGETHER". To the right is a search bar and a "Welcome!" dropdown menu. Below these are navigation links: "HOME", "NOTE EDITOR" (highlighted with a yellow circle and a hand cursor), "SEARCH", and "FORUM". The main content area features a musical score for the song "What do you do with the drunken sailor". The score is written on a treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat and a 4/4 time signature. It includes lyrics and chord symbols (Dm, C, Dm, C, Dm, Dm) above the notes. The score is divided into sections: Verse, Chorus, and Verse. Below the score are four main navigation buttons: "get started" (with a green paper airplane icon), "write music" (with an orange leaf icon), "search scores" (with a blue magnifying glass icon), and "Music Recording Program" (with a blue microphone icon). Each button has a brief description of its function. On the right side of the page, there are sections for "News", "Activities", and "Tweets". The "News" section contains a paragraph about new search functions and a link to a "getting started video". The "Activities" section shows a message board post by "johannes" and a link to "Go to Category". The "Tweets" section shows a tweet from "scorgle" about a feature list for the first version of the Scorio music editor, with a "Tweet" button and a count of "5". At the bottom right, there is a Facebook "Like" button with a count of "24".

Scorio è un'ottima applicazione che consente di scrivere spartiti musicali online, mentre si suona una tastiera virtuale.

È anche possibile fare il contrario, scrivere direttamente le note ed ascoltare immediatamente il suono prodotto.

È possibile installare una versione di Scorio, sempre a titolo gratuito, da utilizzare con l'iPad, trasformandolo in un eccellente strumento per fini didattici.

{loadposition user7}

Sotto potete osservare come scrivere note su pentagrammi con Scorio

{loadposition user6}